

CARR - 438

1811 STONE CHAPEL ROAD

late 19th century

Warfieldsburg

private

1811 Stone Chapel Road is a late nineteenth century house typical of medium-scale architecture constructed in the region's small towns and villages. It is a two-story structure with a four bay facade. It contains two doors--one on each of the central bay--an unusual feature found frequently in German settled areas of southern Pennsylvania and central Maryland.
